NUMB. 2593.

SATURDAY OCTOBER 1. 1743.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Copenhagen, October 1.

HE Russian Minister at this Court has made very serious Representations to his Majesty, on the Consequences that must attend the Prosecution of the War with Sweden, inasmuch as her Imperial Majesty finds herself under an absolute Necessity of declaring, that in case either the Territories of Sweden, or of the House of Holstein, should be attacked, she must consider it as a Rupture, and treat his Danish Majesty as her declared Enemy. We continue, notwithstanding all this, to carry on our military Preparations with the utmost Diligence; part of our Fleet is actually sailed, and the King's Lifeguard is embarking.

P. S. This Moment a Russian Man of War has appear'd in our Road; and we are assured, that the Captain is Commodore of a considerable Squadron. This News seems to have given the Court a good deal of Uneasiness.

Turin, September 13. There has been of late a good deal of Stir in this Court; the Marquis de Senecterre, Minister from his most Christian Majesty, having expostulated with the King, our Sovereign, in pretty warm Terms, and at last concluded, that he had Orders from his Court to demand a precise and definitive Answer. To this his Majesty answer'd with his usual Prudence, That he could not easily divine what positive Answer his Court could expect, since he knew no Demands his Court could form upon him; but that, if his most Christian Majesty was at all desirous of knowing his true Intentions, he was far from endeavouring to hide them. That he had long declined having any Thing to do with the Court of Spain, but thro' the Interposition of the most Christian King; and that the Manner in which he had been treated by the Court of Madrid, had so little in it of Sincerity, or fair Dealing, that it could not be thought strange at Versailles, if his Majesty had treated that Court in the Manner such Proceedings deserved; and that under a just Sense of this, he had lately concluded a definitive Treaty with the Q. of Hungary, by which all Disputes with that Princess were finally adjusted; and therefore his Excellency might acquaint his Court with his Majesty's settled Resolution to oppose the Infant Don Philip's Entrance into Italy, to the utmost of his Power. It was observ'd, that this Declaration had a great Effect upon the Ambassador; who had been long of Opinion, that the Queen of Hungary and Bohemia would not comply with his Majesty's Demands. Since that, he has affected to publish, that the Marquis de la Mina had fix'd the 16th for attempting an Irruption into Piedmont, by attacking the Passes of Fenestrelles and Varavigla, to which his Majesty does not give much Attention; having already taken care to shut up all the Passes into his Dominions, and being firmly persuaded, that he shall be able to follow the Enemy into Savoy, before they are in any Condition to attack him in Piedmont; of which we are daily more and more convinc'd, by the Number of Deserters that daily run the Hazard of their Lives in passing the Mountains, that they may escape the Miseries they suffer in the Spanish Service.

Dresden, September 22. We have lately receiv'd Advice from Vogtland, that a very considerable Town there has been almost burnt to the Ground. It is generally believ'd, that both the French and Prussian Ministers here, are endeavouring to raise fresh Jealousies of the Conduct of the Court of Vienna; but it does not seem at all probable, that they should carry their Point, for two Reasons: First, because his Majesty's Interest and Pretensions never can agree with those of the House of Bavaria; and next, because new Troubles are on the point of breaking out in Poland, where the Nobility are extremely dissatisfied; and where all who are truly loyal to his Majesty, are equally well affected to the House of Austria.

P. S. Prince Lubomirski is just arriv'd here from Vienna, and a Courier is arrived this Morning from M. Gersdorff, with an exact Account of the late Conspiracy in Russia.

Prague, September 21. The Princess of Frustemberg has been lately at Dresden, in order to confer with the Prince her Spouse, who came thither from Frankfort for that Purpose, and is return'd thither again. Several French Officers belonging to the Garison of Egra, are arriv'd here. This Day Te Deum was sung in our Cathedral Church, on account of the Surrender of that City, and the entire Evacuation of Bohemia; and To-morrow Te Deum will be sung on that Occasion, in every Parish-Church in this Capital. All Things are as quiet in this Kingdom as they were before the Troubles began; and the People have so strong a Sense of her Majesty's Clemency, that those who were in the Bavarian Interest, give daily such Marks of their Loyalty, as could scarce be expected.

Manheim, October 2. Yesterday Morning we receiv'd the surprizing News, that M. Noailles had not only abandon'd the Lines behind the Queich, but those of Lauterbourg also. This Morning the Allies pass'd the River first-mention'd; and Col. Mentzel, with his Hussars, has put the best Part of the Country under Contribution. We are exceedingly surprized at this extraordinary Conduct; as to the Reason of which, we know nothing more than this, that it is absolutely a Project of the Court of Versailles, and not at all owing to M. Noailles himself, who expressed some Surprize when he received the Order. According to the best Judgment we can form, the Design of the French Court must be to sacrifice the Lower Alsace, in order to preserve the Upper; where, without doubt, the Army of the two Marshals of France will prove much stronger than that of Prince Charles of Lorrain. The Dutch Troops follow the Army of the Allies at the Distance of a March, and are therefore consider'd as a Body of Reserve.

P S. We have this Moment an Account, that a Trumpet has been sent from the Army of the Allies to the City of Landau, who, it is believed, demanded of the Governor the Surrender of the Place.

Hague, October 8. The Princess Louisa of Great Britain is expected here next Week, if the Wind be fair; and, it is said, that the Baron de Solenthal, the Danish Minister, is to accompany her Royal Highness to Hanover. According to our last Letters from the Army, it is not expected his Britannick Majesty will leave it till towards the End of the Month. These Letters say likewise, that a Body of 10,000 Horse and Dragoons had taken Possession of the French Lines on the Queich. The advanced Posts of the Allies reach as far as the Lauter, and they are, absolutely Masters of all the open Country in the Lower Alsace, where their Hussars raise prodigious Contributions. According to the last Advices from the French Army, M. Noailles was in full March for Haguenau, after having made a strong Detachment for Fort-Lewis. It is not easy to penetrate the Meaning of all this, tho' the French constantly give out, that it is with a View to pass the Rhine, and put Prince Charles between two Fires. This we can the less credit, since we have, this Moment, Letters from the Army of the Allies, which say, that the Day is fixed, when Prince Charles will attempt the Passage of the Rhine, at the same Time that the Allies attack the Army of M. Noailles. A Post or two must, necessarily, put an End to all these Uncertainties.

LONDON.

The Marquis de Botta Adorno, Minister from the Queen of Hungary at the Court of Prussia, having receiv'd a Message from his Prussian Majesty, signifying, that his Presence was by no means agreeable to him; and sending him, at the same time, the Czarina's Manifesto, in which the Marquis is charg'd with being the principal Person in the late detestable Conspiracy, that Minister thought proper to dispatch immediately a Courier to Vienna, to desire he might be recalled.

It appears, that all the French in the Empire, who are not Prisoners, are included in the Capitulation lately granted to the City of Ingoldstadt, and are to retire with the Garison in that Place.

Orders have been sent to Prince Charles of Lorrain, from the Queen of Hungary, to attempt the Passage of the Rhine at any Rate whatever, in order to take Winter Quarters in the Enemy's Country.

The French are about to form a new Army in the Neighbourhood of Valenciennes, under the Command of M. Montmorancy, which has alarm'd the Government of the Austrian Netherlands very much.

We are still under the same Uncertainty with respect to Prince Charles's Motions, only that it seems now certain, from the Number and Largeness of the Boats he has order'd to be made, that his Royal Highness has resolv'd to attempt the Passage of the Rhine with his whole Army.

The Court of France has thought fit to recall the Marquis de Senecterre, who is, at present, at the Court of Turin; which is said to be owing to the Treaty lately concluded with the Queen of Hungary, as we learn by private Letters from Paris.

The same Letters agree, that the Commander Solari, his Sardinian Majesty's Minister, will speedily quit that Court, and return Home.

They likewise add, that upon the Arrival of an Express from the Army of M. Noailles, the whole City of Paris was in the utmost Confusion; which is said to have been owing to his bringing an Account, that his Excellency had been oblig'd to abandon Alsace.

According to private Letters from the Hague, his Danish Majesty had consented to a Negotiation with Sweden, under the Mediation of the Maritime Powers.

Yesterday Mrs. Hill, Wife of —— Hill, Esq; was safely deliver'd of a Son and Heir at his House in Cleveland Court, St. James's. She is the Daughter of William Noel, Esq; one of his Majesty's Council Learned in the Law; and Member of Parliament for Stamford in Lincolnshire.

The same Day, a Fire broke out in a Chimney in the Apartment belonging to her Royal Highness the Princess Amelia, at St. James's, which greatly alarm'd the Court; but several of the Centinels on Guard discharged their Pieces up the Chimney, and the same was extinguish'd without doing much Damage.

Her Royal Highness was pleased to make a handsome Present to the Centinels, and others, for their great Care and Trouble.

Yesterday being the last Friday in the Quarter, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty view'd a great Number of superannuated Seamen, worn out in the Service of the Crown, when 50 of them were minuted down for the Pension of Greenwich Hospital.

The Beginning of this Week died, at his Seat near Reading in Berkshire, —— Doughty, Esq; a Gentleman of a large Estate in that County, and in the City of Westminster. He has left eight Children.

Last Thursday died at the House of Mr. Samuel Smith, in Aldermanbury, Mrs. Jane Smith, Wife of Mr. Abel Smith, of Nottingham; a Lady, whose excellent Qualities will make her lamented by all who had the Pleasure of her Acquaintance.

PARALYTICON, seu Anima Nervorum. A Stupendous Chymical Essence, which infallibly cures the PALSY, and all other NERVOUS DISEASES:

THE very first Dose of it (a few Drops only) instantly penetrates the inmost Recesses of the minute Nerves, and darting almost as quick as Lightning thro' the whole Human System, diffuses kindly Warmth and genial Comfort to the weaken'd Limbs, and all Parts of the Body, and affords immediate sensible Relief in the most obstinate Palsy, and all Paralytick Affects, Shaking, Trembling, Numbness, Deadness, and Weakness, whether universal, or of particular Parts only, or whether lately contracted, or of many Years Continuance.

And as the very first Dose makes an apparent demonstrable Amendment, so the continuing of it for a short Time as surely accomplishes a perfect Cure, not only of the most grievous Palsy or Resolution of the Nerves, but also of their Cramp-like Contractions, Shrinking of the Sinews, and all other Nervous Complaints whatever, and that in Persons of either Sex, or of any Age, and whether occasioned by preceding Illnesses, fast Living, hard Drinking, long Courses of Physick, great Colds, or excessive Fatigues either of Mind or Body.

Words cannot sufficiently express the uncommon, the unparallel'd Efficacy of this great Medicine, as all who take it frankly acknowledge; and its vastly superior Excellency to all other Remedies, may be more securely rely'd on, for the absolute Cure of the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Indispositions, than the Celebrated Cortex is for Intermittents.

It rectifies all Disorders of the first Passages, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, enriches the Blood, restores the native Vigour and steady Use of the Limbs, and strengthens the infected Joints, Muscles, Tendons, Ligaments, and whole Habit to an immense Degree.

It is also very pleasant to take, is comforting and cordial to the Stomach and Bowels, and for Safety might be given to the youngest Infant.

It is to be had only, by the Author's Appointment at Mr. Rafnel's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard, in the Strand, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.

The so-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHich in a few Days infallibly cure HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY in Men, and the VAPOURS in WOMEN, so as never to return again, be they ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual; and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as remedying the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, ill Fumes, sour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneasiness in the Bowels; which Crudities, offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, Flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits, Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings, and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other, almost innumerable and grievous, Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms, in their sharpest Paroxysms, these so much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specifick in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, restoring the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and, of course, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves, so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured evince.

Whoever takes them for 3 Days only, will be sensible that they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Crown and Star in Cornhill, below the Royal Exchange, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with printed Directions at large.
